*Disclaimer: This is a NSFW/PG-13/Partial Spoiler-read. We're not going to include a significant amount of spoilers in this, because while I try to be as spoiler-free as possible, with the exception of player character names and department-specific context names, at this point in time our current setting is as generic as possible. If you're curious to know certain details pertaining to the setting, I'd recommend reading the books in question. Also, be warned that Eau de Fum is of the "Scat" variety. A tip of the hat to anyone who already read Book 1 and managed to stay spoiler-free ? During the scandal, which erupted right after she was elected, 2027's Angela Dekeukeleire had been appointed head of the space dragon studies department in the New Alexandria Academy. The top player on the Space Activity Timeline team and close friend of the aforementioned standing, Angela had been tasked with organizing and leading a team to the mysterious Suessius, the world's last known member of the space dragon race, and enlisting the help of several other prominent dragon-related institutions and individuals in the process. The team's goal was to investigate this species - a roughly humanoid, plantlike creature referred to as the "Thinning", due to its tendency to get thinner and thinner over time - and eventually bring back their genetic material so that they could experiment on them to turn them into real space dragons. Or, at the very least, gather enough information to ensure they weren't the elusive Laughingthicket, the most dangerous and deadly creature the dragon race had ever faced, or any of the other dragons currently living in New Alexandria. The series began in 2271 during Angela's university years, nearly 10 years before Angela's departure for the Pride of Aqmor. A year later, in Year 2, they resumed during her time at the academy. For the purposes of this story, we'll be introducing some new characters in the past few years to try and give us a sense of how things go for an an aspiring Keun, a first year new...everything-goes student. Who never had a rough time at the academy. This narrative is obviously very rough and rough. We will go back to Key/Angela at the end for
